Noughts and Crosses

All you need are two players and a pencil to play this game. Player one places an X on the grid, Player two places an O. They continue to take turns until one player has three across. This can be up, down or diagonal.

www.playscotland.org